

Youth Engagement

Why is youth engagement important?

- Young people should be at the forefront of decision-making regarding their future
- Local communities work better when young people are involved

Girlguiding's role

Two main ways for girls to make social action

- Unit specific local community work, volunteering and projects
- National projects such as Advocate, Action for Change and BYC Delegates.

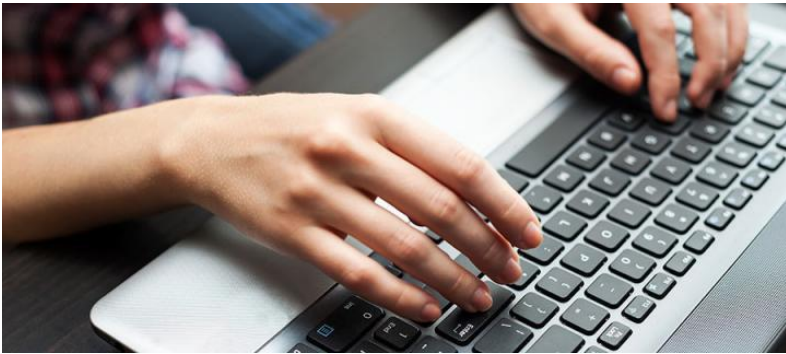

Getting Girl's Voices Heard

- Many young women still feel there is no place for them in politics
- I want to see a commitment from government to engage young women from all backgrounds in their decision making

How young people participate

- Online
- Pressure groups and organisations
- Youth groups and community projects

So, what can local govt do?

My ideas:

- More events in spaces that are accessible for young people eg. Schools, youth centres/clubs, colleges
- More political education workshops
- Social media and online community

Suggestions from peers

“Making local services like libraries more useful and friendly towards young people”

“More young councillors would create a more welcoming environment and give an alternative outlook”

“Making people aware so more advertisement of services to young people”

“More youth groups and council youth panels to make sure young people are consulted”

Corbyn being shaved against his will by two robots of the state

Thank you!

"we've had reports of you doing it again mrs May. we can see the wheat on your shoes"

