Protecting our communities from extremism

LGA Annual Conference 2016

Presented by: Tim Foy (Director, Counter-Extremism)

Date: 7 July 2016

Points I will cover

- What do we mean by extremism?
- Why be concerned – what harms does it cause?
- How are we working together to protect our communities and vulnerable citizens?
- What more can we do?

How do we define extremism?

“Extremism is the vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and the mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also regard calls for the death of members of our armed forces as extremist.”
